

Countdown for android is a multiplayer game designed for Android OS and inspired by the TV show countdown. It implements the letters round, the numbers round and the conundrum round in the same way as the show. What our app does differently is that it provides an online multiplayer component as well as a solver round which uses algorithms to find optimal answers allowing users to train and assess their performance.